STAY ORDER

Pursuant to the Consent Order of Discipline entered in 91 DHC 17, this matter is before the Secretary of the North Carolina State Bar upon a Petition for Stay filed on September 2, 1992 by Douglas Osborne, Jr.

It appears from a review of the Consent Order of Discipline dated November 18, 1991 and filed November 27, 1991 that the petitioner was ordered suspended from the practice of law for five years effective August 3, 1990, with a portion of the suspension subject to being stayed upon certain conditions.

It further appears from the averments in the petition that:

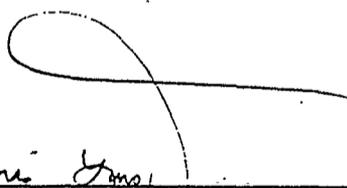

1. Petitioner has been released from federal prison.
2. All other conditions for the stay contained in the Consent Order of Discipline have been complied with.
3. Petitioner has abstained from the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension.

After conducting necessary investigation regarding the petitioner's compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 25(B)(3) of Article IX of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar, Counsel for the North Carolina State Bar filed no objections to the Petition within the time required by Section 25(B)(4) of Article IX.

Therefore, pursuant to Section 25(B)(5) of Article IX of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar it is hereby ordered:

Douglas Osborne, Jr. is reinstated to the active practice of law in North Carolina effective October 2, 1992.

This the 2nd day of October, 1992.
