FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS
OF LAW AND
ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This cause was heard by a Hearing Committee of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission of the North Carolina State Bar consisting of Fred Folger, Chairman, Sam Beam and Robert Bryan on Wednesday, Sept. 26 and Thursday, Sept. 27, 1990. The Defendants were represented by James Maxwell and the Plaintiff was represented by Carolin Bakewell.

Based upon the pleadings, prehearing stipulations and the evidence presented at the hearing, the Committee makes the following:

FINDING OF FACT & CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. The North Carolina State Bar failed to prove by clear, cogent and convincing evidence that either Defendant violated any provision of the Code of Professional Responsibility and/or the Rules of Professional Conduct, as alleged in the complaint in this matter.

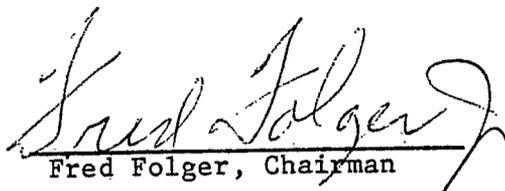

Based upon the foregoing FINDING OF FACT & CONCLUSION OF LAW, the Committee makes the following:

ORDER

1. The North Carolina State Bar's disciplinary complaint in this matter is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

This the 2 day of October, 1990.

Signed by the Chairman with the express consent of all Committee members.

Fred Folger, Chairman
