BASED on the evidence presented at the trial of this matter, and the pleadings and pretrial stipulations of record, the committee makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. The Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar (the "State Bar") is a body duly organized under the laws of the State of North Carolina and is the proper body to bring this proceeding under the authority granted to it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina and the rules and regulations of the State Bar promulgated pursuant thereto (the "State Bar Rules and Regulations").

in North Carolina subject to the State Bar Rules and Regulations and the Rules of Professional Conduct of North Carolina.

- 3. During all or a part of the relevant periods referred to herein, Defendant was engaging in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina and maintained a law office in Cumberland County, North Carolina.
- 4. The Defendant maintained a trust account in United National Bank in Fayetteville, North Carolina, account number 56 1192350 (The "Trust Account"). The Defendant also maintained as a fiduciary an additional account at United National Bank in Fayetteville, account number 56 1432202 (the "Barton & Lee Trust Account").
- 5. The Trust Account contains funds of multiple clients of the Defendant. The Defendant has not maintained ledger cards for all of the funds maintained as a fiduciary and did not maintain other records at the time of deposit of funds into the Trust Account or the Barton & Lee Trust Account to adequately ascertain what funds were held, deposited, or disbursed on behalf of what clients or taken by or received by the Defendant prior to, at the time of or subsequent to such .deposit.
- 6. On or about March 13, 1995, the Defendant entered into a retainer agreement with Bernetha G. Long, (hereafter "Long") pursuant to which the Defendant agreed to act as attorney for Long in a personal injury claim. The Defendant mailed a letter concerning the retention to Long on March 16, 1995. The letter contains a notation "Our File: LA1089" which reflects the file number assigned by the Defendant to this matter.
- 7. No funds were paid as part of the retainer agreement, and no funds were deposited into the Trust Account on behalf of Long.

8. Beginning on or about September 14, 1995, the Defendant began issuing checks to The Lee Law Firm, P.A. which were drawn on the trust account and which contained a notation "For LA1089." The checks drawn on the trust account were as follows:

NUMBER	DATE	AMOUNT
1152	September 14, 1995	$2,000.00
1223	November 2, 1995	2,000.00

The checks totaled $11,500.00, and all bore the signature of the Defendant. All checks were negotiated and cleared the bank within three days of their issuance.

- 9. At the time of the issuance of these checks, no funds had been deposited into the Trust Account on behalf of Long. The Defendant was therefore using funds belonging to persons other than Long in drawing and cashing these checks without their knowledge or consent.
- 10. On or about June 19, 1996, The Ohio Casualty Group issued a check to Bernetha G. Long & Gilmer Long Individually & as Husband & Wife & their attorney C. Leon Lee III in the amount of $36,352.59. The check contained the notation stating that it was "In Settlement of All claims against Jerry A. Dowless, Jr."
- 11. On or about July 3, 1996, the Defendant deposited into the Trust Account a check in the amount of $36,352.59.
- 12. On or about July 5, 1996, check # 1722 was written on the trust account by the Defendant in the amount of $616.00. The check bore the notation "LA1089".
- 13. On or about July 11, 1996, Long signed a sheet titled "disbursements" which authorized the Defendant to disburse the funds, and which contained an authorization by The Defendant to disburse funds in the amount of $12,116.00 to the Lee Law Firm, P.A. for attorneys fees.

- 14. The total of the checks listed in paragraph 8 of these findings and check #1722 is $12,116.00 dollars, the same amount indicated on the disbursement sheet that was payable to the Defendant as attorneys fees.
- 15. The Defendant engaged in a pattern and practice of withdrawing fees either from his trust account on behalf of clients or otherwise prior to the time that the requisite funds were deposited into his trust account to cover the fees, or prior to the time that he was entitled to have, withdraw or take such funds in payment of fees. The amounts of such fees withdrawn or appropriated by the Defendant were in amounts equal to or substantially equivalent to the fees either subsequently earned, or anticipated to be derived from the case as fees. The instances in which fees were withdrawn on behalf of a client prior to the time that the deposit was made, include, but are not limited to the following:

CLIENT	CLIENT NUMBER	SHORTFALL
