Based upon a review of the records of the North Carolina State Bar, the Secretary makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. J. Wesley Covington (hereinafter, Covington) was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in 1981.
2. Covington was suspended from the practice of law for three years, with all but 180 days stayed upon certain conditions; by order of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission, effective January 1, 2000.
3. On June 2, 2000, Covington filed a verified petition for reinstatement in which he stated that he had complied with 27 NCAC 1B, §.0124, that he had paid the costs of his disciplinary hearing, that he had violated no provisions of the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct or any laws of the State of North Carolina or the United States, that he had not engaged in the practice of law nor engaged in any conduct constituting grounds for discipline since the Order of Discipline was entered, that he was current in his CLE requirements and that he had paid all dues and assessments to the North Carolina State Bar and the 14th Judicial District.
4. Counsel for the North Carolina State Bar did not file any objection to Covington's petition within the time allowed by 27 NCAC 1B, §.0125(b)(4).

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Secretary makes the following:

CONCLUSION OF LAW
