

ON-SITE VISIT FOR JUDICIAL DISTRICT BARS
THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR

In Person Tailored Meetings and Presentations Available to Judicial District Bars

The North Carolina State Bar recognizes the value of on-site visits and encourages you to schedule a visit with us. On-site visits provide free, personalized service to bar leaders and staff for all of North Carolina's Judicial District Bars.

An On-Site Visit Offers Judicial District Bars:

Program and Management Assistance

Maybe you're considering amending your bylaws or want to begin collecting dues. Maybe you're district is interested in establishing a new service program, or offering CLE programs. Perhaps you'd just like to know more about how the State Bar operates. The District Bar Liaison will come prepared to discuss issues or concerns based upon your request. Information can be provided about the activities of other comparably sized bars and about the North Carolina State Bar resources available to your district.

Presentation topics include: Trust Accounting (CLE credit available), Overview of State Bar programs, and Running a Judicial District Bar.

An Exchange of Information

By sharing what you've learned in developing a successful project, you'll be assisting other bar leaders who call upon the State Bar when they need direction in implementing similar programs. The State Bar is always interested in learning about the successful and effective projects and programs of North Carolina's District Bars. It's an opportunity to "toot your horn."

Your Key Resource at the State Bar

Following the visit, the District Bar Liaison will remain the Judicial District Bar's contact when it is necessary to contact the State Bar. He can help you get answers more quickly and efficiently. If the District Bar Liaison can't answer your questions, he will identify the person who can.
