The following documents and fees must be submitted to the North Carolina State Bar prior to filing Articles of Amendment with the NC Secretary of State:

If approved, we will return the original Articles of Amendment and a non-objection letter prepared by the NC State Bar. If there is any impediment to approving the amendment, you will be advised of the problem and given an opportunity to correct it.

You must then submit the original Articles of Amendment and the original non-objection letter to the NC Secretary of State Corporations Division. Once the Secretary of State's Office processes your amendment, you will receive a filed/date stamped copy of the Articles of Amendment from their office.

Please send a copy of the filed/date stamped articles to the NC State Bar (address above) or email to amaner@ncbar.gov to receive your Certificate of Registration (NCSB Form PLLC-3) from the NC State Bar. Please maintain the Certificate of Registration for your records.
