Both parties stipulate and agree to the findings of fact and conclusions of law recited in this consent order and to the discipline imposed. Defendant freely and voluntarily waives any and all right to appeal the entry of this consent order of discipline. Based upon the stipulations of fact and the consent of the parties, the hearing committee hereby finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar, is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar promulgated thereunder.
2. Defendant, Robert E. Griffith, II ("Griffith"), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in 1981 and is, and was at all times referred to herein, an attorney at law licensed to practice in North Carolina, subject to the laws of the State of North Carolina, the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct.
3. During all or part of the relevant periods referred to herein, Griffith was engaged in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina and maintained a law office in Southport, North Carolina.
4. Griffith was properly served with process, a hearing in this matter was set, and the matter came before the hearing committee with due notice to all parties.

5. Griffith unlawfully and willfully failed to file his state individual income tax returns for some or all of the years from 1996 through 2002, inclusive, when such tax returns were due, as required by N.C. Gen. Stat. § 105-152.

6. Willful failure to file or pay a state income tax when due is a Class 1 misdemeanor under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 105-236 (9).

7. Griffith was charged in Wake County, North Carolina with willful failure to file his individual state income tax returns for the years 1996 and 2002.

8. Griffith pled guilty to willful failure to file his individual income tax returns for the years 1996-2002.

9. On January 24, 2005, Griffith was convicted of six counts of willful failure to file his individual state income tax returns, for the years 1996-2002. Griffith was ordered to file all state income tax returns for the years 1996-2002 within 60 days, to pay all past due taxes within 120 days after the returns are filed, to pay a $150 fine and court costs, and was sentenced to 45 days imprisonment, which sentence was suspended, and was placed on unsupervised probation for 24 months.

10. Griffith acknowledges and admits that his failure to file his state individual income tax returns violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(b)(2).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. All the parties are properly before the hearing committee and the committee has jurisdiction over defendant, Robert S. Griffith II, and the subject matter.

- a. By unlawfully and willfully failing to file state income tax returns, Griffith committed criminal acts that reflect adversely on his honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness in other respects in violation of Rule 8.4(b) and engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in violation of Rule 8.4(c).

Based upon the stipulations of fact and the consent of the parties, the hearing committee hereby finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following additional

FINDINGS OF FACT REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. Griffith's misconduct is aggravated by the following factors:
 - a. Pattern of misconduct;
 - b. Multiple offenses;
 - c. Substantial experience in the practice of law;
 - d. Failure to file federal income tax returns and failure to pay federal income taxes for the years 1996-2002; and
 - e. Failure to pay to pay state individual income taxes for some or all of the years from 1996 through 2002, inclusive, when such payment was due, as required by N.C. Gen. Stat. § 105-157.
2. Griffith's misconduct is mitigated by the following factors:
 - a. No prior discipline;
 - b. Timely good faith effort to make restitution or to rectify the consequences of his actions, including having paid the North Carolina Department of Revenue his overdue state taxes;
 - c. Full and free disclosure to the hearing committee and a cooperative attitude toward the proceedings;
 - d. Imposition of other penalties or sanctions, to wit: probation, court costs and a fine as described above; and
 - e. The violations occurred during a period of financial difficulty associated with relocation of Griffith's office and divorce;
 - f. Remorse;
 - g. During 1997-2002, Griffith filed requests for extension of time to file tax returns and paid a portion of the taxes owed; and
 - h. All state and federal returns for the years 1996-2002 have been filed.
3. The mitigating factors outweigh the aggravating factors.

Based upon the foregoing factors and with the consent of the parties, the hearing committee hereby enters the following
