

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
19G1180

IN THE MATTER OF)
JAMES R. LEVINSON,) REPRIMAND ATTORNEY AT LAW)

On July 22, 2020 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by the North Carolina State Bar. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff's investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand.

You represented clients D.R. and K.R. in their bankruptcy case. In the course of that representation, you engaged in the following misconduct: failed to maintain the original signed version of all electronically-filed documents; failed to disclose all compensation you received for the bankruptcy case; filed conflicting documentation regarding your compensation; improperly collected additional legal fees from D.R. and K.R. while the bankruptcy case was pending and while the automatic stay was in effect; failed to communicate pertinent information to D.R. and K.R. at the time you collected these additional legal fees, including the effect of the automatic stay and that the fees were for a dischargeable debt they would not have to pay after entry of their discharge in the bankruptcy case; made material omissions in documents filed with the Bankruptcy Court for your clients; failed to promptly inform D.R. of your receipt of funds for him; failed to promptly disclose to the Court your receipt of funds for D.R.; failed to properly handle the funds you received for D.R., neither promptly turning the funds over to the bankruptcy trustee nor depositing the funds into a trust account; and engaged in a representation involving a concurrent conflict of interest. This misconduct violated the following Rules of Professional Conduct: 1.3; 1.4(a)(3); 1.4(b); 1.5(a); 1.7(a); 1.15-2(b); 1.15-2(m); and 8.4(d).

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 28th day of August 2020.

A. Todd Brown, Sr.
Chair, Grievance Committee
