THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR,

v.

ROBERT M. GALLANT, Attorney,

Defendant

FINDINGS OF FACT,
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND
CONSENT ORDER OF DISCIPLINE

THIS MATTER was considered by a hearing panel of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission composed of Walter E. Brock, Jr., Chair, R. Lee Farmer, and Randy A. Moreau pursuant to 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114 of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar, was represented by Brian P.D. Oten. Defendant, Robert M. Gallant, was represented by Ashley R. Smith. Defendant waives a formal hearing in this matter and both parties stipulate and consent to the entry of this order and to the discipline imposed. Defendant waives any right to appeal this consent order or to challenge in any way the sufficiency of the findings.

Based upon the consent of the parties, the hearing panel hereby makes, by clear, cogent and convincing evidence the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar (“Plaintiff” or “State Bar”), is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the rules and regulations of the North Carolina State Bar promulgated thereunder.

2. Defendant, Robert M. Gallant (“Defendant” or “Gallant”), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar on 23 August 1997 and is, and was at all times referred to herein, an Attorney at Law licensed to practice in North Carolina, subject to the rules, regulations, and Rules of Professional Conduct of the North Carolina State Bar and the laws of the State of North Carolina.

3. During a portion of the relevant periods referred to herein, Gallant was actively engaged in the private practice of law in the city of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.

4. During a portion of the relevant periods referred to herein, Gallant was actively suspended from the practice of law pursuant to the State Bar's Order of Administrative Suspension dated 28 January 2009, effective 16 March 2009.

5. Defendant was properly served with process and received due notice of the hearing in this matter.

6. During calendar years 2007 through 2013, Gallant's income exceeded the minimum threshold above which an individual is required to file federal and state income tax returns.

7. For these tax years, Gallant was aware of the deadlines for filing state and federal tax returns.

8. Gallant failed to file, within the times required by law, federal income tax returns showing his tax liability for tax years 2007 through 2013.

9. Gallant failed to file, within the times required by law, state income tax returns showing his tax liability for tax years 2007 through 2013.

10. Gallant did not file federal income tax returns for tax years 2007 through 2013 until October 2014. Gallant did not file state income tax returns for tax years 2007 through 2013 until December 2014.

11. Gallant's failure to file federal and state income tax returns for tax years 2007 through 2013 was willful.

12. Willful failure to file federal income tax within the time required by law is a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203.

13. Willful failure to file North Carolina income tax within the time required by law is a violation of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 105-236(a)(9).

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the panel enters the following

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. All parties are properly before the hearing panel and the panel has jurisdiction over Defendant, Robert M. Gallant, and over the subject matter of this proceeding.

2. Defendant's conduct, as set out in the Findings of Fact above, constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(b)(2) as follows:

- (a) By failing to timely file his federal and state income taxes for tax years 2007 through 2013, Defendant committed criminal acts that reflect adversely on his honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer in violation of Rule 8.4(b).

Based upon the consent of the parties, the hearing panel also finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following

ADDITIONAL FINDINGS REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. Defendant has no prior discipline.
2. Before the facts recited herein came to the attention of the State Bar, Defendant had filed his state and federal returns for tax years 2007 through 2013.
3. During the relevant periods herein, Defendant experienced significant tragic events in his personal life that led to his exiting the practice of law and obtaining employment in an unrelated field. Defendant's new employer did not always timely provide Defendant with proper tax records and documentation to enable Defendant to timely file his taxes. Despite Defendant's personal circumstances and despite his employer's conduct, Defendant's delay in filing his state and federal taxes and his delay in paying state taxes was willful in that he was solely responsible for complying with his known personal tax obligations.
4. Defendant cooperated fully with the State Bar's investigation of this matter and expressed remorse for his conduct.
5. Defendant, who was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar on 23 August 1997, has substantial experience in the practice of law.
6. When lawyers violate the law in their business and personal affairs, it brings disrepute upon the legal profession and undermines public confidence in lawyers.

Based upon the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Additional Findings Regarding Discipline, and the consent of the parties, the hearing panel also enters the following

CONCLUSIONS REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. The Hearing Panel has carefully considered all of the different forms of discipline available to it, including admonition, reprimand, censure and suspension.
2. The hearing panel has carefully considered all of the different forms of discipline available to it. In addition, the hearing panel has considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(3) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and determines the following factors are applicable:
 - a. The effect of Defendant's personal or emotional problems on the conduct in question;
 - b. Defendant's lack of prior disciplinary offenses;
 - c. Full and free disclosure to the hearing panel and cooperative attitude toward the proceedings;

- d. Remorse; and
- e. Defendant's experience in the practice of law.

3. The Hearing Panel has considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(2) and concludes no factors are present that would warrant disbarment.

4. The hearing panel has carefully considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(1) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and determines the following factors warrant suspension of Defendant's license:

- a. Defendant's actions potentially had a negative impact on the public's perception of the legal profession.

5. The Hearing Panel has considered lesser alternatives and finds that a censure, reprimand or admonition would be insufficient discipline because of the significant potential harm to the legal profession caused by Defendant's conduct.

6. Although Defendant's conduct is serious enough to warrant more than a censure it does not warrant an active suspension of his license.

7. A stayed suspension of Defendant's law license is warranted because entry of an order imposing less severe discipline would fail to acknowledge the seriousness of the misconduct and would send the wrong message to attorneys and the public about the conduct expected of members of the Bar of this State.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Findings and Conclusions Regarding Discipline, and based upon the consent of the parties, the hearing panel enters the following

3. If the stay granted herein is lifted or the suspension of Defendant's license is activated for any reason, before seeking reinstatement of his license to practice law, Defendant must show by clear, cogent and convincing evidence that he has complied with each of the following conditions:

- a. Defendant completed the evaluation described in paragraph 1(d) above and complied with any and all treatment recommendations prior to reinstatement, with an evaluation report and a treatment report being sent to the Office of Counsel simultaneous with Defendant's petition for reinstatement;
- b. Defendant submitted his license and membership card to the Secretary of the North Carolina State Bar within thirty days after the date of the order lifting the stay and/or activating the suspension of his law license;
