THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR,
Plaintiff,
vs.
GEORGE L. BUMPASS, Attorney,
Defendant

FINDINGS OF FACT
AND
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The undersigned Hearing Committee of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission of The North Carolina State Bar having entered default against defendant, the allegations contained in the Complaint are deemed admitted. Based on those admitted allegations and evidence presented by The North Carolina State Bar, the Hearing Committee makes the following findings of fact:

1. The plaintiff, The North Carolina State Bar, is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the Rules and Regulations of The North Carolina State Bar promulgated thereunder.

2. The defendant, George L. Bumpass, was admitted to The North Carolina State Bar in 1957, and is and was at all times referred to herein, an Attorney at Law, licensed to practice law in the State of North Carolina, subject to the Rules, Regulations, Canons of Ethics and Code of Professional Responsibility of The North Carolina State Bar and the laws of the State of North Carolina.

3. At and during all of the times hereinafter referred to, the defendant was actively engaged in the practice of an attorney in the State of North Carolina and maintained a law office in the City of Durham, Durham County, North Carolina.

4. In August, 1974, the defendant was employed by Mary Alice Redman (hereinafter referred to as "Redman") to represent her in a claim arising out of an automobile accident in which Redman was injured.

5. Shortly thereafter, the defendant informed Redman that the suit had been settled and she had been awarded $4,500.00. The defendant further advised Redman that upon receipt of bank drafts that Redman was instructed to endorse said checks, execute the insurance company release form, and return the checks and the releases to the defendant.

6. Redman complied with these instructions and returned the $4,500.00 check and release to the defendant. Thereafter, despite repeated inquiries and requests, the defendant failed and refused to communicate with Redman and failed and refused to pay over to Redman any monies received by the defendant for and on behalf of Redman.

7. Based on the foregoing findings of fact, the Hearing Committee concludes that the conduct of the defendant constitutes a violation of General Statute 84-28(b)(2); in that:

- A. The defendant failed and refused to properly pay over or to deliver to his client, Mary Alice Redman, as requested, the funds in the possession of the defendant to which the client, Mary Alice Redman, was entitled, in violation of Disciplinary Rule 9-102(B)(4) of the Code of Professional Responsibility;
- B. The defendant failed to preserve the identity of the funds and property of his client, Mary Alice Redman, in violation of Disciplinary Rule 9-102(A) of the Code of Professional Responsibility;

- C. The defendant wrongfully and deceitfully converted to his own use the funds of his client, Mary Alice Redman, in violation of Disciplinary Rule 1-102(A)(4);
- D. The defendant engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, and misrepresentation in violation of Disciplinary Rule 1-102(A)(4) of the Code of Professional Responsibility;
- E. The defendant engaged in professional conduct that was prejudicial to the administration of justice and that adversely reflects upon his fitness to practice law in violation of Disciplinary Rule 1-102(A)(5)(6) of the Code of Professional Responsibility.

This the 27th day of June, 1977.
