This matter is before the Court on a petition for an adjudication of incompetence of the respondent.

This court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this proceeding in that: (select only one box, 1. or 2. or 3.)

North Carolina is a significant-connection state because the respondent has a significant connection to North Carolina other than mere physical presence and substantial evidence concerning the respondent is available in North Carolina, and the respondent:

- a. does not have a home state because the respondent was not physically present in any state for at least six (6) consecutive months over the course of the past twelve (12) months.
- b. has a home state that is not North Carolina and that state declined to exercise jurisdiction because North Carolina is a more appropriate forum.
- c. has a home state that is not North Carolina and (1) no other petition for adjudication of incompetence and appointment of a guardian was pending in any other state at the time the underlying petition in this case was filed, (2) no other petition was filed in the respondent's home state after the initiation of this proceeding, (3) no person entitled to notice raised an objection to North Carolina's jurisdiction, and (4) this Court concludes that North Carolina is an appropriate forum.

OR

3. "Other" State

North Carolina is not a home state or a significant-connection state but the respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined to exercise jurisdiction because North Carolina is a more appropriate forum, and jurisdiction in North Carolina is consistent with the constitutions of North Carolina and the United States.
