IN THE MATTER OF	)
	)	REPRIMAND
ANTON M. LEBEDEV,	)
ATTORNEY AT LAW	)

On January 23, 2020 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by the North Carolina State Bar. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff's investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand.

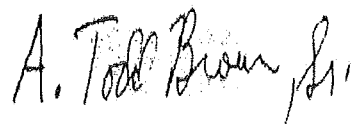

You represented M.M. in several cases in multiple counties. On more than one occasion during the course of the representation, you asserted a position for which there was no good faith basis in law and/or fact in violation of Rule 3.1. The following are examples of this misconduct: (a) asking the Guilford County District Court to void a Rowan County conviction (when a request for the same relief was pending in Rowan County); (b) seeking a writ of prohibition to enjoin the State from doing something it had no intention of doing (i.e. pursuing a probation violation when the underlying conviction had been vacated); (c) filing a motion to recuse a judge that didn't include the required supporting affidavit and did not articulate any grounds for concluding the judge was biased against your client; and (d) asserting without basis that the entire Rowan County District Court bench should be recused from presiding over your client's matters. Your pursuit of frivolous claims and contentions needlessly protracted litigation and wasted court time and resources, and therefore was prejudicial to the administration of justice in violation of Rule 8.4(d).

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 14th day of May, 2020.
