OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR

IN THE MATTER OF )
 )
GEORGE D. NORRIS, JR., ) REPRIMAND ATTORNEY AT LAW )

On July 21, 2022 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by C. M. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff’s investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as “reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action.”

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand.

You were appointed to represent Complainant C.M.’s daughter P.E. on a criminal charge of Food Stamp and Medical Assistance Recipient Fraud. Before she was arrested, P.E. had a close relationship with and resided with E.F. E.F. was involved in P.E.’s case, attending many appointments with you, meeting with you on P.E.’s behalf both with and without P.E., and relaying messages between you and P.E.. P.E. and E.F. discussed P.E.’s substance abuse and mental health issues with you.

After P.E. was released, E.F. hired you to file an emergency ex parte custody order on E.F.'s behalf. While representing E.F., you used confidential information obtained while representing P.E. to the detriment of P.E., in violation of Rules 1.7(a)(2), 1.9(a), and 1.9(c). By disclosing this information to the court, you also violated Rule 1.6.

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 6th day of September, 2022.
