NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
04G1413

IN THE MATTER OF)

Regina M. Taylor,) Attorney At Law)

REPRIMAND

On July 14, 2005 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievances filed against you by T. J. P.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Committee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Committee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand, and I am certain that you will understand fully the spirit in which this duty is performed.

In 2004 you represented Trent J. Powell in connection with two traffic-related charges. You failed to appear in court on his behalf on February 13, 2004 and on July 8, 2004. As a result DMV notified Mr. Powell that his license would be suspended for failing to appear in court on February 13 and the Court issued an order for his arrest for failing to appear on July 8. You did check the court file before the July 8 date to see if certain documents were contained therein, but made no effort to contact Mr. Powell when you discovered the documents were not in the file or to inform him that you would not appear on his behalf or that he would then have to appear. The Committee found that you were not diligent in representing Mr. Powell in violation of Rule 1.3 and did not communicate adequately with him in violation of Rule 1.4 of the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct.

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted October 15, 1981 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of the administrative and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, the costs of this action in the amount of $50.00 are hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 14 day of August, 2005

Henry Babb, Chair
Grievance Committee
