THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR,

v.

SIR ASHLEY J. HARRISON, Attorney,

Defendant

FINDINGS OF FACT,
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND CONSENT ORDER OF DISCIPLINE

THIS MATTER was considered by a hearing panel of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission composed of Joshua W. Willey, Jr., Chair, Donald C. Prentiss, and Christopher Bruffey pursuant to 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114 of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar, was represented by Brian P.D. Oten and Maria J. Brown. Defendant, Sir Ashley J. Harrison, represented himself. Defendant waives a formal hearing in this matter and both parties stipulate and consent to the entry of this order and to the discipline imposed. Defendant waives any right to appeal this consent order or to challenge in any way the sufficiency of the findings.

Based upon the consent of the parties, the hearing panel hereby makes by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar (“State Bar”), is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar (Chapter 1 of Title 27 of the North Carolina Administrative Code).

2. Defendant, Sir Ashley J. Harrison (“Defendant” or “Harrison”), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in 2011 and is, and was at all times referred to herein, an attorney at law licensed to practice in North Carolina, subject to the laws of the State of North Carolina, the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and the Rules of Professional Conduct.

3. During part of the relevant periods referred to herein, Harrison was engaged in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina and maintained a law office in Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.

4. During part of the relevant periods referred to herein, Harrison was transferred to inactive status with the North Carolina State Bar by order of the Mecklenburg County Superior Court dated 27 May 2014. Harrison was reinstated to active practice by order of the Mecklenburg County Superior Court dated 23 September 2015.

5. Harrison was properly served with process and received due notice of the hearing in this matter.

6. In January 2012, R.H. retained Harrison to represent her on a charge of driving while intoxicated in Cabarrus County, file no. 11 CR 56169.

7. R.H. paid Harrison $450.00 for the representation.

8. Harrison failed to inform R.H. that a hearing had been scheduled in her case on 9 May 2012 and that she was required to appear at this hearing.

9. As a result of Harrison's failure to inform R.H. of the 9 May 2012 hearing, R.H. failed to appear at the hearing and the judge issued an order for R.H.'s arrest.

10. Harrison notified R.H. on 10 May 2012 that, because of her failure to appear, the judge had issued an order for her arrest.

11. R.H.'s next court appearance was scheduled for 6 June 2012.

12. On 23 May 2012, R.H. – who lived in Florida – emailed Harrison and asked that he continue the 6 June 2012 hearing because she was going to be unable to travel to North Carolina on that date.

13. On 25 May 2012, Harrison filed a motion to have the hearing rescheduled for 20 June 2012.

14. On or about 1 June 2012, the Cabarrus County Clerk of Court's office notified Harrison by telephone that there was to be no court on 20 June 2012 and that the hearing in R.H.'s matter would occur on 25 June 2012.

15. Harrison did not inform R.H. of the change to her court date.

16. Believing that the hearing was still scheduled for 20 June 2012, R.H. purchased a nonrefundable ticket for a round-trip flight between Orlando, Florida and Charlotte, North Carolina so she could appear in court on 20 June 2012.

17. R.H. thereafter called Harrison and learned from him that the hearing was taking place on 25 June 2012.

18. R.H. did not appear at the 25 June 2012 hearing because she was unable to afford to purchase another plane ticket. As a result, R.H. was called and failed and another order for her arrest was issued.

19. On 16 August 2012, Harrison had the order for R.H.'s arrest stricken, and the matter was set for hearing on 26 September 2012.

20. Harrison failed to inform R.H. that a hearing had been scheduled in her case on 26 September 2012.

21. As a result of Harrison's failure to inform R.H. of the 26 September 2012 hearing, R.H. failed to appear at the hearing and the judge issued another order for R.H.'s arrest.

22. Throughout the representation, Harrison failed to respond to R.H.'s inquiries concerning her case.

23. Harrison's failure to inform R.H. of scheduled court dates unnecessarily delayed resolution of R.H.'s case.

24. In February 2013, C.M. retained Harrison to represent her on charges of driving while intoxicated in Mecklenburg County, file no. 13 CR 200782, and driving with a revoked license in Cabarrus County, file no. 13 CR 700667.

25. C.M. paid Harrison $650.00 for the representation.

26. Throughout the representation, Harrison failed to respond to C.M.'s inquiries concerning her case.

28. Grievance file no. 13G0371 was referred to the Grievance Committee of the 26th Judicial District for investigation. A member of the 26th Judicial District Grievance Committee was assigned to investigate the grievance.

29. By letter dated 30 May 2013, Harrison was notified of C.M.'s grievance and requested to file a written response to the grievance within fifteen days of his receipt of the letter.

30. Harrison faxed a written response to the investigator on 5 July 2013.

31. After reviewing Harrison's response to the grievance, the investigator called Harrison multiple times to obtain additional information.

32. Harrison did not return the investigator's telephone calls.

34. J.H. paid Harrison $1,000.00 for the representation.

37. Harrison never subsequently contacted J.H.

38. J.H. made multiple inquiries to Harrison's office requesting an update on the status of her case.

39. Harrison did not respond to J.H.'s inquiries.

40. Harrison subsequently failed to inform J.H. of her next scheduled court date and that she was required to appear at this hearing.

41. As a result of Harrison's failure to inform J.H. about her next scheduled court date, J.H. failed to appear at the hearing and the judge issued an order for J.H.'s arrest.

42. Harrison did not complete the matter for which J.H. had retained him.

43. Harrison did not refund any portion of the fee J.H. paid.

44. On 7 July 2014, J.H. filed a grievance with the North Carolina State Bar, grievance file no. 14G0623.

50. Harrison recommended that they wait to take action until such time as R.B.'s girlfriend filed papers with the court.

51. R.B.'s girlfriend did not file any legal action against R.B. as anticipated.

52. Harrison did not provide any legal services for which R.B. retained him.

58. By letter dated 4 December 2013, Harrison was notified of the fee dispute and of the requirement that he respond to the dispute in writing within fifteen days.
59. Harrison failed to respond to the fee dispute.
60. The mediator assigned to this fee dispute telephoned Harrison twice to request that Harrison submit a response.
61. Harrison did not return the mediator's calls.
62. After consulting with Harrison's office, the mediator set a mediation of the fee dispute for 3 January 2014 and sent a letter to Harrison confirming the date.
63. Harrison did not appear for the mediation.

77. On 4 November 2013, opposing counsel filed a motion for sanctions, requesting attorney's fees and requesting that the court enter default judgment against Harrison's clients for their failure to participate in discovery. Opposing counsel noticed the hearing on the motion for sanctions for 9 December 2013.

78. Harrison did not appear at the 9 December 2013 hearing on the motion for sanctions.

79. Opposing counsel's motion for sanctions was subsequently granted and the court entered a judgment against Harrison's clients for attorney's fees.

80. Opposing counsel later moved for summary judgment against Harrison's clients, which was also granted.

100. Harrison did not respond to all of A.M.'s phone calls and emails.

101. On or about 30 September 2013, A.M. left a voicemail for Harrison indicating that, due to the lack of communication, he would be hiring another attorney and filing a complaint against Harrison with the State Bar.

102. Harrison returned A.M.'s telephone call promptly and explained that A.M. could either plead guilty or fight the charge on the basis of the State's delay in releasing A.M. from custody, which would require waiting until the next court date.

103. A.M. elected not to plead guilty, and Harrison told A.M. that he would have to appear in court on 21 October 2013.

104. A.M. subsequently checked the online court calendar and saw that his case was calendared for 9 December 2013.

Based upon the consent of the parties, the hearing panel also finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following

ADDITIONAL FINDINGS REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. During the relevant periods herein, Defendant suffered from depression and anxiety, which significantly contributed to Defendant's neglect and failure to timely or appropriately respond to his clients. In light of these conditions, in May 2014, Defendant consented to winding down his practice and being transferred to inactive status with the State Bar by Order of the Mecklenburg County Superior Court. In 2015, Defendant was evaluated by a licensed psychologist who opined that Defendant is not currently disabled from the practice of law as defined by the State Bar's administrative rules (located at 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0103(19)). Defendant was subsequently transferred back to active status with the State Bar in September 2015 by the Mecklenburg County Superior Court. Although Defendant is not presently suffering from any disability that would prevent him from practicing law, Defendant has not resumed his practice due to his mental condition that could potentially harm his clients and that could interfere with his ability to practice law in accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct should he resume his practice.

2. Defendant's conduct, to wit: severe and widespread neglect of client matters, failure to communicate with clients, and failure to complete the matters for which he was retained caused significant harm to his clients and their abilities to resolve their legal matters. Defendant's conduct caused significant confusion and frustration among his clients, and in some instances resulted in the court issuing orders for his clients' arrest. Defendant's conduct also impaired his clients' abilities to achieve the goals of their respective representations by causing unnecessary delay in their cases.

3. Defendant's clients were vulnerable victims of his misconduct. His clients were unfamiliar with the legal process and had limited financial resources. His clients had paid and relied upon Defendant to protect or pursue their legal rights.

4. Defendant's conduct caused significant harm to the public and to the administration of justice by unnecessarily delaying resolution of his clients' cases. Justice is achieved when all matters are timely pursued and resolved; justice is impeded by attorneys who knowingly abandon their clients and their duties as an attorney, leaving their clients' cases and their clients' interests in an unnecessarily uncertain status such as that created by Defendant.

5. Defendant caused significant harm to the profession by repeatedly failing to respond to multiple State Bar inquiries and otherwise failing to participate in the grievance process. Such conduct interferes with the State Bar's ability to regulate its members and undermines the profession's privilege to remain self-regulating.

6. By engaging in repeated instances of client neglect and failure to respond to the Bar, Defendant committed multiple offenses and displayed a pattern of misconduct. At the time of his conduct, Defendant knew or should have known that his actions could harm his clients and the administration of justice.

7. Defendant's conduct caused potential significant harm to the standing of the legal profession in the eyes of the public in that such conduct by attorneys erodes the trust of the public in the profession. Confidence in the legal profession is a building block for public trust in the entire legal system.

8. There is an absence of any evidence that Defendant intended to harm his clients or that he exhibited a dishonest or selfish motive.

9. Defendant has no prior discipline.

10. Defendant has acknowledged his conduct violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and is remorseful for his actions.

Based upon the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Additional Findings Regarding Discipline, the hearing panel also enters the following

CONCLUSIONS REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. The hearing panel has carefully considered all of the different forms of discipline available to it. In addition, the hearing panel has considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(3) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and determines the following factors are applicable:

- a. Defendant's lack of prior disciplinary offenses;
- b. Defendant's lack of a selfish or dishonest motive;
- c. Defendant's pattern of misconduct;
- d. Defendant's multiple offenses;
- e. The effect of Defendant's personal or emotional problems on the conduct in question;
- f. Defendant's remorse; and
- g. The vulnerability of the victims, Defendant's clients.

2. The hearing panel concludes that none of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(2) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar are present in this case.

3. The hearing panel has carefully considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(w)(1) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and determines the following factors warrant suspension of Defendant's license:

- a. Defendant's intent to commit acts where the harm or potential harm was foreseeable;
- b. Defendant's actions potentially had a negative impact on his clients' and the public's perception of the legal profession;
- c. Defendant's actions had a negative impact on the administration of justice;
- d. Defendant's conduct impaired his clients' abilities to achieve the goals of the representation; and
- e. Defendant's multiple instances of failure to participate in the legal profession's self-regulation process.

4. The hearing panel has considered all other forms of discipline and concludes that any sanction less than suspension would fail to acknowledge the seriousness of the offenses committed by Defendant, would not adequately protect the public, and would send the wrong message to attorneys and to the public regarding the conduct expected of members of the Bar.

5. The hearing panel further concludes that due to the extensive client neglect described in the present action, the public will only be adequately protected by imposing a period of active suspension of Defendant's law license. Additionally, the hearing panel concludes that Defendant should be allowed the opportunity to petition for a stay of a portion of the suspension imposed by this Order upon compliance with certain conditions designed to ensure protection of the public and Defendant's compliance with the Rules of Professional Conduct.

6. Under other circumstances, the misconduct in this case would warrant more serious discipline as set forth in the additional findings above. However, the unique circumstances surrounding this case justify lesser discipline than would otherwise be appropriate. The factors that particularly warrant lesser discipline include: Defendant's depression and anxiety significantly contributed to Defendant's misconduct; Defendant has accepted personal responsibility for his actions; Defendant acknowledges the wrongfulness and seriousness of his misconduct; and Defendant is genuinely remorseful.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Findings Regarding Discipline, the hearing panel enters the following

ORDER OF DISCIPLINE

1. The license of Defendant, Sir Ashley J. Harrison, is hereby suspended for five years. This Order shall be effective upon filing.

2. Defendant shall submit his license and membership card to the Secretary of the North Carolina State Bar no later than 30 days following the effective date of this Order. To the extent not already completed, Defendant shall have 30 days to comply with the wind down provisions contained in Rule .0124 of the North Carolina State Bar Discipline and Disability Rules, located at 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0124.

3. Within 30 days of the effective date of this Order, Defendant shall provide the State Bar with an address and telephone number at which clients can communicate with Defendant.

4. Defendant shall pay the costs and administrative fees of this proceeding as assessed by the Secretary within 120 days of service of the statement of costs upon him.

5. After serving no less than three years of the suspension, Defendant may petition for a stay of the remaining period of suspension imposed by this Order by filing a petition with the Secretary of the North Carolina State Bar. In order to be eligible for a stay of the remaining period of suspension, Defendant must demonstrate by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that, in addition to complying with the general provisions for reinstatement listed in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0125 of the North Carolina State Bar Discipline & Disability Rules, he has complied with the following conditions:

- (a) Not more than 90 days before he petitions for a stay, Defendant must be evaluated by a licensed and qualified psychiatrist or psychologist. Such psychiatrist/psychologist shall be approved in advance by the North Carolina State Bar Office of Counsel. Such psychiatrist/psychologist shall certify under oath whether, based on his or her independent and comprehensive evaluation of Defendant and in his or her professional opinion, Defendant currently has any physical, mental, psychological, behavioral, cognitive, or emotional illness, disorder, or other condition that impairs Defendant's ability to practice law, that impacts Defendant's ability or willingness to comply with the Rules of Professional Conduct, and/or that poses a risk of harm to the public if he engages in the practice of law. Defendant shall sign an authorization form consenting to the release of all medical records and information related to Defendant's evaluation to the Office of Counsel, and Defendant shall not revoke that release. Defendant shall simultaneously provide a copy of such signed authorization to the Office of Counsel and the psychiatrist/psychologist. Defendant shall direct the evaluating psychiatrist/psychologist described herein to provide a written report of such evaluation and recommended treatment, if any, to the Office of Counsel within 30 days of the evaluation taking place. All expenses of such evaluation and report shall be borne by Defendant;

- (b) Defendant must have arranged for an active member of the North Carolina State Bar to serve as his law practice monitor. Defendant's practice monitor shall be an attorney in good standing who practices law in the judicial district in which Defendant proposes to practice law and who has been approved by the Office of Counsel. The monitor shall agree to supervise all client matters and must ensure that Defendant handles all client matters in a timely fashion, including promptly responding to his clients and diligently pursuing his clients' matters. Defendant shall agree to meet once a month with his monitoring attorney, report the status of all current client matters to the monitoring attorney, cooperate with the monitoring attorney, and provide any information the monitoring attorney deems reasonably necessary to ensure that Defendant is properly and timely handling all client matters. The monitoring attorney shall submit written quarterly reports of this supervision to the Office of Counsel, such reports due on the following dates as they occur during any stay of this suspension: January 15, April 15, July 15, and October 15. Defendant bears the responsibility of ensuring the monitoring attorney sends a written report each quarter to the Office of Counsel as described above. This monitoring will occur for the duration of any stay of this suspension. Defendant shall pay the cost, if any, charged by the monitoring attorney for this supervision. Defendant must make the arrangements for this monitoring attorney and supply the Office of Counsel with a letter from the monitoring attorney confirming his or her agreement to perform all of the duties listed above;
- (c) Defendant must have personally responded to client inquiries within the following periods of time:

- i. Upon receiving a request from a client for return of his or her client file(s), Defendant shall return the requested client file(s) within 10 days of receiving such a request.
 - ii. Upon receiving a request from a client for a refund of an unearned fee, Defendant shall refund the entirety of any unearned fee paid by the client to Defendant within 60 days of receiving such a request. If Defendant disputes the requested refund – in its entirety or in part – Defendant shall inform the client in writing of his contention and the reasons therefor in his response to the client’s inquiry. In his petition for a stay of suspension, Defendant shall account to the State Bar for all refunds requested and all refunds issued during his suspension, noting all refund disputes and the reasons therefor.
 - iii. Defendant shall respond to all other client inquiries within 7 days of receiving such a request.
- (d) Defendant must have kept the North Carolina State Bar membership department advised of his current physical home and business addresses and telephone numbers;
 - (e) Defendant must have accepted all certified mail from the North Carolina State Bar (including the Client Security Fund) and responded to all letters of notice and requests for information from the North Carolina State Bar by the deadlines stated in the communication or within fifteen days of receipt of such communication, whichever is earlier;
 - (f) Defendant must have fulfilled all of his State Bar membership and continuing legal education requirements, and Defendant must have paid all fees and costs assessed by the State Bar and the Client Security Fund by the applicable deadline;
 - (g) Defendant must have participated fully and timely in the State Bar’s fee dispute program when notified of any petitions for resolution of disputed fees;
 - (h) Defendant must not have not violated any state or federal laws or any provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct; and
 - (i) Defendant must have timely paid the costs and administrative fees associated with this case as described in paragraph 3 above.

6. If Defendant is granted a stay of the suspension of his law license pursuant to this Order, the stay will continue in force only as long as Defendant complies with the following conditions:

- (a) Within 30 days of entry of an order staying any portion of this suspension, Defendant shall execute a new contract with the North Carolina State Bar’s

Lawyer Assistance Program. Such contract shall last throughout the entirety of any stayed period of Defendant's suspension. Defendant shall sign an authorization form consenting to the release to the Office of Counsel of any records and information related to Defendant's participation in and compliance with the Lawyer Assistance Program, and Defendant shall not revoke that release. Defendant shall simultaneously provide a copy of such signed authorization to the Office of Counsel and the Lawyer Assistance Program;

- (b) Defendant shall comply with all treatment recommendations of the evaluating psychiatrist/psychologist described in paragraph 5(a) above as well as any treatment provider(s), including recommendations from the Lawyer Assistance Program. Defendant shall direct his treatment provider(s) to provide the Office of Counsel with semi-annual written reports concerning Defendant's condition, Defendant's compliance with the treatment plan, and Defendant's progress resulting from treatment for the duration of any stay of his suspension. Such reports shall be received by the Office of Counsel every June 1 and December 1. Defendant shall also comply with any and all requests from the Office of Counsel seeking updates on the status of his ongoing treatment within fifteen (15) days of receipt of such requests. If Defendant switches treatment providers during any stayed period of his suspension, Defendant shall sign an authorization form consenting to the release of any medical records and information related to Defendant's treatment to the Office of Counsel, and Defendant shall not revoke that release. Defendant shall simultaneously provide a copy of such signed authorization to the Office of Counsel and his new treatment provider(s). Within 30 days of starting treatment with the new provider(s), Defendant shall direct such new treatment provider(s) to provide the Office of Counsel with a written report detailing Defendant's treatment plan, as well as the semi-annual written reports described above. All expenses of such treatment and reports shall be borne by Defendant;
- (c) Defendant shall meet with his law practice monitor as described in paragraph 5(b) above. Defendant shall meet at least once a month with his monitoring attorney, report the status of all current client matters to the monitoring attorney, cooperate with the monitoring attorney, and provide any information the monitoring attorney deems reasonably necessary to ensure that Defendant is properly and timely handling all client matters. Defendant shall direct his law practice monitor to submit written quarterly reports of this supervision to the Office of Counsel, such reports due on the following dates as they occur during the stay of this suspension: January 15, April 15, July 15, and October 15. Defendant bears the responsibility of ensuring the monitoring attorney sends a written report each quarter to the Office of Counsel as described above. This monitoring shall occur for the duration of any stay of this suspension. Defendant shall pay the cost, if any, charged by the monitor for this supervision;

- (d) Defendant shall cooperate with the Office of Counsel and make appropriate arrangements for an alternate monitoring attorney if needed during any stay of this suspension;
- (e) Defendant shall keep the North Carolina State Bar membership department advised of his current physical home and business addresses and telephone numbers;
- (f) Defendant shall accept all certified mail from the North Carolina State Bar and respond to all letters of notice and requests for information from the North Carolina State Bar by the deadlines stated in the communication or within fifteen days of receipt of such communication, whichever is earlier;
- (g) Defendant shall timely comply with his State Bar membership and continuing legal education requirements, and Defendant shall pay all fees and costs assessed by the State Bar and the Client Security Fund by the applicable deadline;
- (h) Defendant shall participate fully and timely in the fee dispute program when notified of any petitions for resolution of disputed fees; and
- (i) Defendant shall not violate any state or federal laws or any provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

7. If Defendant fails to comply with any one or more of the conditions stated in Paragraph 5 above, then the stay of the suspension of his law license may be lifted as provided in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(x) of the North Carolina State Bar Discipline and Disability Rules.

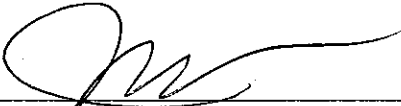

8. If Defendant does not seek a stay of any active period of suspension, or if some part of the suspension is stayed and thereafter the stay is revoked, Defendant must provide in his application for reinstatement clear, cogent, and convincing evidence of the following:

- (a) Compliance with the general provisions for reinstatement listed in 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0125 of the North Carolina State Bar Discipline & Disability Rules; and
- (b) Compliance with the conditions set out in Paragraphs 5(a) and 5(c) – (i) above.

9. Nothing in this Order shall prohibit the State Bar from investigating and, if necessary, pursuing disciplinary action against Defendant for additional misconduct discovered or reported which occurred during the same time period as the conduct addressed in this Order.

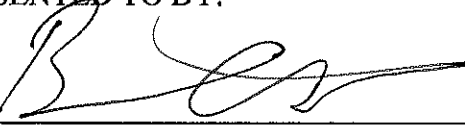

10. The Disciplinary Hearing Commission will retain jurisdiction of this matter pursuant to 27 N.C. Admin. Code 1B § .0114(x) of the North Carolina State Bar Discipline and Disability Rules throughout any period of stayed suspension.
