

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE
THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF
THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
23G0469

IN THE MATTER OF	)
	)	REPRIMAND
TREVOR DAVID BRANDT,	)
ATTORNEY AT LAW	)

On October 31, 2024, the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by the North Carolina State Bar. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff's investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand.

You received funds into your trust account for client Will, returning funds due to Will for a home purchase that did not go through. You were notified that there was a dispute regarding the source of funds provided by Will for the home purchase. Despite notice that there was a dispute regarding Will's entitlement to these funds, you disbursed the funds to Will and to yourself for attorney's fees, in violation of Rule 1.15-2(a), (l), and (n). Your disbursement of funds to yourself occurred after entry of a temporary restraining order prohibiting Will and anyone acting in concert with her from dissipating, transferring, conveying, converting, or otherwise using or spending the funds at issue, and thus your disbursement of attorney's fees to yourself from these funds violated the court's order and was in violation of Rule 8.4(d). In the course of communications with opposing counsel concerning the funds, you made two misrepresentations in violation of Rule 8.4(c).

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 5th day of December, 2024.

Kevin G. Williams, Chair
Grievance Committee
