THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR

Plaintiff

v.

H. BRIGHT LINDLER, Attorney,

Defendant

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, complaining of Defendant, alleges and says:

1. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar (State Bar), is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar (Chapter 1 of Title 27 of the North Carolina Administrative Code).

2. Defendant, H. Bright Lindler ("Lindler" or "Defendant"), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in 1987, and is, and was at all times referred to herein, an attorney at law licensed to practice in North Carolina, subject to the laws of the State of North Carolina, the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Upon information and belief:

3. During all or part of the relevant periods referred to herein, Defendant was engaged in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina and maintained a law office in Rockingham, Richmond County, North Carolina.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

4. Paragraphs 1-3 are re-alleged and incorporated as if fully set forth herein.

5. Beginning in or about June 2008, Lindler represented client A.M. in a workers' compensation matter.

6. In or about July 2009, Lindler negotiated with the employer and insurance carrier ("the defendants") in A.M.'s case a proposed settlement of $2,500.00 to resolve A.M.'s workers' compensation claims.

7. Lindler discussed the proposed $2,500.00 settlement with A.M. and A.M. initially agreed to the settlement.

8. Shortly thereafter, Lindler received a phone message on behalf of A.M. that she no longer wished to resolve her workers compensation claims for $2,500.00.

9. Before Lindler finalized the $2,500.00 settlement, Lindler had a phone conversation with A.M. in which A.M. reiterated to Lindler that she would not accept $2,500.00 in settlement of her workers' compensation claims.

10. Despite his knowledge that A.M. did not agree to the $2,500.00 settlement, on or about July 13, 2009 Lindler nonetheless signed on A.M.'s behalf an Agreement for Final Compromise Settlement and Release ("the settlement agreement") accepting $2,500.00 for full and final settlement of A.M.'s workers' compensation claims.

11. By signing the settlement agreement on A.M.'s behalf, Lindler falsely represented to the defendants that A.M. agreed with the terms of the settlement.

12. Based on A.M.'s apparent agreement to the settlement, the settlement agreement was approved by the Industrial Commission and by order dated September 30, 2009 the Industrial Commission awarded $625.00 in attorney fees to Lindler to be deducted from the $2,500.00 paid by the defendants.

13. When Lindler received the $2,500.00 from the defendants, Lindler did not notify A.M. of his receipt of the funds.

14. On November 2, 2009, Lindler sent a letter to A.M. asking her to make an appointment with him and stating, "There have been other developments in your case and I would like for you to call my office and make an appointment to see me in person. One topic of the discussion will be the expenses in the amount of $2,553.45 that you owe this office. Another topic will be the final resolution of your case."

15. A.M. did not respond to Lindler's November 2, 2009 letter.

16. Lindler made no further efforts to inform A.M. of the receipt of the $2,500.00 settlement he received on her behalf.

17. Lindler did not disburse to A.M. any portion of the $2,500.00 he collected on A.M.'s behalf.

18. Instead, Lindler disbursed the entire $2,500.00 to himself.

19. Lindler was entitled to only the $625.00 awarded by the Industrial Commission as his fee. The remaining $1,875.00 belonged to A.M.

20. A.M. did not consent to the disbursement to Lindler of the $1,875.00 that belonged to her.

21. In or about June 2010, A.M. contacted the Industrial Commission about her claims and learned that her claims had been settled for $2,500.00.

22. After being contacted by the Industrial Commission about A.M.'s inquiry, Lindler wrote a letter to A.M. on June 25, 2010 setting forth the details of his representation of her.

23. Lindler forwarded a copy of his June 25, 2010 and November 2, 2009 letters to A.M. to the Industrial Commission and to the attorney for the defendants.

THEREFORE, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's foregoing actions constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(b)(2) in that Defendant violated the Rules of Professional Conduct in effect at the time of the conduct as follows:

- a) By falsely representing to the defendants that A.M. agreed with the terms of the settlement, Defendant engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in violation of Rule 8.4(c) and (d);
- b) By settling A.M.'s case without her consent and knowledge, Defendant did not abide by his client's decision whether to settle a matter in violation of Rule 1.2(a), failed to promptly inform his client of any decision or circumstance with respect to which his client's informed consent is required in violation of Rule 1.4(a)(1) and failed to keep his client reasonably informed about the status of the matter in violation of Rule 1.4(a)(3);
- c) By failing to inform A.M. that he had received funds on her behalf, Defendant did not keep his client reasonably informed about the status of the matter in violation of Rule 1.4(a)(3) and did not promptly notify his client of the receipt of entrusted property belonging in whole or in part to his client in violation of Rule 1.15-2(m);
- d) By disbursing the funds belonging to A.M. to himself and not to her or at her direction, Defendant failed to promptly pay or deliver to his client, or to third persons as directed by his client, any entrusted property belonging to his client and to which his client is currently entitled in violation of Rule 1.15-2(n), used or pledged entrusted property to obtain credit or other personal benefit for the lawyer or any person other than the legal or beneficial owner of that property in violation of Rule 1.15-2(k), committed a criminal act that reflects adversely on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer in other respects in violation of Rule 8.4(b), and engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in violation of Rule 8.4(c); and
- e) By sending a copy of his June 25, 2010 and November 2, 2009 letters to A.M. to the Industrial Commission and to the attorney for the defendants, Defendant revealed information acquired during the professional relationship with a client in violation of Rule 1.6(a).

Employment Taxes

37. At all times referenced herein, Lindler had one or more employees who provided services for the benefit of Lindler's law firm.

38. When Lindler paid wages to employees of his law firm, he was required by the IRS to withhold funds from his employees' paychecks to pay the employees' social security, Medicare, and federal income taxes ("employment taxes").

39. As the owner of his law firm, Lindler was required to collect, truthfully account for, and timely pay over to the IRS employment taxes for employees of his law firm.

40. Lindler was required to remit employment taxes to the IRS on a periodic basis as specified in the Internal Revenue Code.

41. From the time the employment taxes were withheld until the time they were paid to the IRS, Lindler had a fiduciary duty to hold funds withheld from employees' paychecks in trust for the benefit of the United States Department of the Treasury.

42. Defendant willfully failed to remit employment taxes to the IRS within the time required by law during the following tax periods:
